BORDEAUX

I am excited to present the following wines this month. They all represent outstanding values, giving you pleasure now or in the years to come.

Chateau Delord, Premiere Cotes de Bordeaux 2002

$9.99 bottle / $119.88 case (net)

What a find! This is a tremendous wine for the money. Fine Bordeaux from a well-known appellation opposite Graves. On the nose, I detected aromas black current and cassis with faint notes of old leather. On the palate, rich dark fruit. A steal. Regular: $11.99

Chateau Sainte-Marie Bordeaux Superieur 2003

$13.99 bottle / $159.49 case

A pleasant surprise! This is old vines Bordeaux in a rich, full-bodied package for an incredible price. This a bristling red, boasting espresso roast and chocolate. This is a fine chateau located between St. Julien and Margaux on the left Bank. This location accounts for the wine's elegance. This 2000 exhibits aromas of cassis, black cherry and faint earth. The palate follows through with black cherry fruit and black tea. This is a classic style Bordeaux to enjoy over the next 5 years. Regular: $25.99

Corbin Michotte St. Emilion 1996

$16.99 bottle / $193.69 case

Chateau Pipeau 2003 St. Emilion

$24.99 bottle / $284.89 case

I'll let Mr. Parker do the talking because I agree with him! "One of my favorite St. Emilions because of its sexy, exuberant, hedonistic style. The 2003 performed exceptionally well. Its deep ruby/purple color is accompanied by impressive sweet black cherry fruit, good structure as well as tannin, medium to full body, and tremendous purity, weight, and ripeness. Give it 1-3 years to settle down, and enjoy it over the following decade." 90-92 points. Well, I like because it is great fun to drink! Enjoy this wine over the next 10 years. Regular: $26.99
